HONGKONG, JULY 24TH, 1895.

Among the various schemes for the improvement of the Colony lately placed before the Council, the one for the reclamation of the foreshore at Causeway Bay is not the least important.

For some years past the condition of this swamp had been growing more and more intolerable, owing to the permanent anchorage of shoals of small sampans there.

It was no doubt due to the fact that the foreshore at Causeway Bay was not the least important.

IMPROVEMENT AND THE MEANS OF IMPROVING

our principal drive out of town, but in the end it will prove a remunerative work and help to swell the revenue of the Colony. In the course of a few years a considerable town will probably spring up in and round Causeway Bay, and become the chief manufacturing portion of the city. In connection with the reclamation, we are glad to see that a dredger is to be procured for the work, and it will, of course, also be utilized for the purpose of dredging the foreshore along the Praya, more especially between Polder's Wharf and the P. and O. Office, where at low tide the contents of the sewers are left to reek and fester under a tropical sun, giving off the most sickening odours and rendering residence along the water face most unpleasant and insubstantial.
